

A Happy Home

is where comfort is found. Does your home fall short in this matter of comfortableness? No reason why it should be otherwise than the most attractive place in the world for you. We'll put the missing furnishings in your home and you can pay us when convenient. See us to-day and we feel certain that we can solve this question of payment in a most satisfactory way to both of us.

B. W. Hooker & Company
UNDERTAKERS FUNERAL DIRECTORS
LICENSED EMBALMERS
HOSPITAL AMBULANCE SERVICE
DAY OR NIGHT 'PHONE 87-11

TALK OF THE TOWN

Victor records for November are here. Call and hear them at Bailey's Music Rooms, 14 Elm street, Barre.
G. M. Andre left the city last evening for Boston, where he expects to make an extended visit with relatives.
Miss Rose H. Hopkins left last night for Millers Falls, Mass., where she will spend some time with acquaintances.
Arthur Tite, a small boy, underwent a successful operation for appendicitis at the City hospital last night. His condition to-day was reported to be favorable for an early recovery.
Don't miss going to the masque carnival dance Nov. 4 given for the benefit of the Barre City hospital. Big time for all. Carroll's orchestra. Bill, $1 per couple.

Clan Gordon Fair Program for Friday.
The following is the concert program for Friday at the Clan Gordon fair:
Piano solo—"How So Fair" from "Martha".....Miss Sylvia Pedroni
Solo—Selected.....James B. Gall
Highland dancing by Misses J. Will and Gertrude Thompson
Solo—Selected.....Miss Bella Cantley

If you want the best drinking Coffee used try Shapleigh's celebrated

Boston Coffee

2 lbs. 35c special

Granite City General Store

1-15 Granite St. Telephone 151

SEA FOOD

SHORE HADDOCK
SWORD FISH
FRESH MACKEREL
FLOUNDERS

ROCK COD
HALIBUT
FRESH SALMON
FRESH HERRING

SHELL CLAMS, per peck 50c
CLAMS FOR CHOWDER, per pint 18c
LARGE OYSTERS, per pint, 25c; per quart 45c
MEDIUM OYSTERS, per pint, 18c; per quart 35c

FINNAN HADDIES FRIDAY MORNING

Houghton & Robins

258 Telephone 259

WOOD WOOD WOOD

In the ever-increasing high prices of living, there is one exception, and that is wood. The prices of wood have been reduced from 25 to 50 cents per load.

We are selling Dry Wood at the following prices:
Block Wood, per cord $3.00
Chair Wood, per load 2.50
Hard and Soft Saw-Mill Slabs, per load 1.75

ARTHUR S. MARTIN

PHONES: 31-W AND 31-N 31 PARK STREET, BARRE, VERMONT

TALK OF THE TOWN

Read about our sale for three days at Vaughan's.
Hugh Seaver of Williamstown began work Tuesday in the Daylight store.
Miss Irene Calderara is working for A. P. Abbott & Co. in the Daylight store.
Special meeting of Canton Union, No. 9, Friday evening at 7:30 for practice.
Mrs. M. A. Wiley of Franklin, N. H., is visiting W. H. Measer and family.
Lee Hall has returned to the city after spending a few days in Burlington on business.

Victor records for November are here. Call and hear them at Bailey's Music Rooms, 14 Elm street, Barre.

Classes are now forming at the Land school of music for violin, piano, harmony and counterpoint—adv.

Scan the menu in today's Times for the menu supper at the Universalist church Friday evening, Oct. 29.

George Benoit, who has been visiting friends in Barre and Northfield for a few days, returned last evening to his home in St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. B. W. Bralley, a former resident of Barre, returned to her home in Burlington Wednesday afternoon, after visiting friends in the city for a few days.

See the costumes that will be worn at the masquerade in the Presbyterian church, Friday evening. A good program will also be given. Refreshments served. Admission, 10c.

The choristers of the Church of the Good Shepherd will hold their regular rehearsal this week Friday evening at 6:30 at the home of Mrs. A. W. Allen at Sunnyside farm.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Parkhurst, who were called to Barre by the death of their daughter, Mrs. Emma Brown, of North Main street, returned last evening to their home in Fitzwilliam, N. H. William Andrus, an employee of the Powers Regulator Co. of New York City, has finished his work of installing thermostat dampers in the Spaulding school building and left this morning for Claremont, N. H.

Auction sale to-morrow, near West Topsham village, for Lawrence Flynn; all stock, 11 cows, eight head of young cattle, brood sow, shoats and a nice four-month-old baby colt. C. F. Smith, auctioneer—adv.

B. A. Eastman and H. G. Bennett returned last night from a bear hunting trip each with a member of the bruin family to his credit. One animal weighed about 200 pounds while the other, a cub, tipped the scales at about 175 pounds.

The public is cordially invited to attend a Halloween masquerade entertainment to be held in the vestry of the Presbyterian church Friday evening at 8 o'clock. An interesting program will be given and refreshments will be served. Admission, 10c.

The sale in the Methodist church to be held next Tuesday and Wednesday will be an alphabetical sale with useful and ornamental articles ranging from A to Z. Special pains will be taken to provide useful gifts for the Yuletide. Also food will be on sale—adv.

Troop No. 2 of the boy scouts of the Congregational church gave the investiture ceremony to two new members last night. After the ceremony the scouts held a rehearsal of the play, "A Busy Afternoon," which they are to give before the public in the near future.

On her return home to Milford, Mass., after having passed a few days in the city as the guest of Miss Gladys Bradford of South Main street, Miss Beatrice Hurley, who left the city yesterday, was accompanied by Miss Loretta O'Hare of St. Albans, who will make a stay of several days in Milford and vicinity.

A large crowd attended the Kelly brothers' auction sale in Moretown yesterday. Sixteen cows sold from $30 to $70 per head, two-year-old heifers from $30 to $50, yearling heifers from $22.50 to $28 pair of team horses, $240 yearling colt, $22.50, hay in the barn from $10.25 to $13.25, oats, $5.40; potatoes, 75c; farm tools and machinery brought good prices. The farm was not sold. C. F. Smith, auctioneer.

Friends of Mrs. Joseph Gray of Pearl street, wife of a well known Barre & Chelsea railroad employee, will be interested in the following item, taken from the St. Albans Messenger of Oct. 27: "Mrs. Joseph Gray of Barre who has been receiving treatment at the St. Albans hospital for the past six weeks, was taken Monday to the home of her mother, Mrs. Church, of Lake street, very much improved in health."

A party of nearly 35 Barre City and Barre Town teachers left the city over the Central Vermont railroad at 8:25 o'clock this morning for Rutland to attend the state teachers' convention. Prin. C. H. White left for Rutland yesterday. Sessions at Spaulding school, including the eighth grades and the high schools, are suspended until Monday and elsewhere in the grades where the teachers have absented themselves on account of the convention, the children were granted Thursday and Friday holidays.

Mrs. Jessie Douglas and Miss Hortense Knight entertained a party of twelve young women at the former's home on Orange street last evening in honor of Miss Inez Waterman, whose approaching marriage to Harry Bassett of Orleans has been announced. The affair came as a surprise to Miss Waterman, who had been invited to spend the evening with Mrs. Douglas, when the approach of other guests was made known by considerable noise. Cards were enjoyed and the presentation of a very substantial wedding gift to the bride-to-be was one of the delightful features of the gathering. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Menu for Men's Supper Universalist Church, Friday Evening, Oct. 29.
Tomato bisque soup
Stewed tomatoes
Home cured ham
Roast ribs of beef, Dish gravy
Spring lamb, Mint and Brown Sauce
Tenderloin of beef without mushrooms
New boiled and mashed potatoes
Hot baked potatoes
New Hubbard squash
Buttered and pickled beets
Green apple pie, pumpkin pie
Strawberry ice
Mixed nuts, Apples, Canned raisins, American and Swiss cheese, Saltines
Pure spring water
Butter tarts
Dessert tarts
Coke Hot rolls
Note—Owing to the price (25 cents) we are unable to serve items marked by star.
Supper served at 6 o'clock. Tickets may be purchased of W. G. Reynolds, E. M. Tobin, Dr. C. W. Steele, C. B. Gladding, A. E. Campbell, H. C. Ladd, F. W. Jackson, F. C. Eaton, P. M. Carr, H. L. Campbell, C. F. Miller, W. H. Ward.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

Ready Made Garments for All!

The successful merchant of to-day knows that all his work counts for nothing unless it produces profitable patronage. He knows that among the strongest of all attractions are goods that contribute towards making the customer pleased with her purchase, and feel and know she has got the best possible value for the money that can be found. He is continually looking for the new things that are good, to please the trade, and demonstrate to them that he is doing all he can to have the new things as soon as they are out. Our ready made department is now full of the season's best merchandise, in quality and prices that will please all.

Special Suit Values

We were able to get a few extra good Suit values at a little under price, which we are putting out at prices that will interest many. These are Poplin and Serge Suits in Navies and Blacks—Suits that were made to sell at $15.00 and $20.00. These we are putting on one rack, together with a few we had in stock, at only $15.00 each. These are an extra well-tailored Suit in styles and qualities that are right.

Separate Coats

The Coat season is now at its best, and we can show you one of the largest lines of ladies' popular models to be found in the state. Plain and Mixed Cloth Coats are now coming in very strong. The materials are the best, and the styles with the graceful flare at the bottom makes them very attractive and new. Nearly every day brings new models into the department. If interested in Coats, you should see this line. We have a few odd Coats that we are closing at half price.

Ladies' and Children's Bath Robes

We have now a large showing of the season's best values in Ladies' and Children's Bath Robes. These are Robes that are made from the Beacon Mills product, and the qualities and styles are the best; the patterns are new, and the prices are not much more than you would pay for the cloth or blankets. The styles are made up very attractively. See our special Ladies' Bath Robes at $2.00 and $2.50. Can give you Slippers to match.

Ladies' Wool Dresses

We are showing a special All-Wool Serge Dress in several styles at $5.75; that is a very good value.

Our millinery department is just as busy a place as ever; we can show you an unusually large line of the season's best ready made hats at prices that appeal to all. Every day now brings new models and shapes into this department and if you do not find just what you are looking for we have the hat shapes and will make what you want. It is no trouble to show you these models. See our large line of Misses' and Children's Velvet Hats.

The Daylight Store

TALK OF THE TOWN

Bruce Chesterman, presenting "The Man from Virginia," Nov. 5 and 6—adv.

Guest towels, stamped with cross-stitch and other simple designs, pink or blue hemstitched borders, at Miss Rowell's, 161 North Main street.

Young men and young women of the Presbyterian Bible class will join in a Halloween social in the vestry of the church to-morrow evening. A variety of novel entertainments have been planned and each member of the class has been requested to wear a mask and costume. There will be a program and refreshments to be served.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Harvey and child have moved their household goods to this city, having leased the house at 7 Maple Grove owned by Mrs. George L. Morris. At present Mr. Harvey, who is a member of the Vermont bar, is assisting in the revision of the statutes at the State House, although when that task is completed, he will be engaged in the practice of his profession in this city.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See fireproof granite shed ad., page 7.

A clean and sanitary shave in a clean and sanitary shop at Ross' Barber Shop. Depot square—adv.

Some committee! Some menu! Some supper! The men of the Universalist church at the vestry Friday evening, Oct. 29, at 6 o'clock.

John McLean of Montpelier has resumed his duties in the United Clothing store on Depot square, after a few days absence on account of illness.

Edwin C. Nevins, who was called to Barre by the death of Mrs. Marcia B. Emory, has returned to his home in Philadelphia, Pa., after visiting among friends in this city and vicinity for a few days.

Truckmen of the Barre local will hold a special meeting at their headquarters this evening at 7:30 o'clock. A large attendance is desired as the local has been asked to listen to a report from a committee representing the clerks.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Special values in gloves at Vaughan's. Children's tams, all colors, at the Vaughan store.

Mrs. H. L. Clark of Boston, Mass., who has been visiting relatives and friends in the city for the past month, left yesterday for Springfield, Mass., where she will spend two weeks visiting before returning to her home.

Elwin E. Parks, a resident of Boston, Mass., who has been traveling through the western states during the past summer months, and who has been visiting in the city for the past few days, left this morning for his home.

Tickets for the supper to be served by the men of the Universalist church, Friday evening may be purchased of W. G. Reynolds, E. M. Tobin, Dr. C. W. Steele, C. B. Gladding, A. E. Campbell, H. C. Ladd, F. W. Jackson, F. C. Eaton, P. M. Carr, H. L. Campbell, C. F. Miller and W. H. Ward.

Clan Gordon Minstrels.

The following is the program of the minstrel show to be given at the clan fair in Howland hall on the evenings of Thursday and Saturday, Oct. 28 and 30. Opening chorus—"The Land of the Free".....Arr. L. Witmark

Entire company, 35 people.
Song—"When I Was a Dreamer and You Were My Dream".....Van Alstyne
George David.

Song—"Back Home in Tennessee".....Gilbert Phillips
W. Donaldson

Song—"Wee Wee".....H. Lander
Harry Clark.

Song—"Who Knows".....E. R. Ball
Sidney Oliver.

Chorus—"Nellie Was a Lady" C. E. Foster
Male chorus.

Song—"Island of Dreams".....Weatherly
J. C. Wylie.

Song—"Oh Promise Me".....De Koven
Miss Barbara McDonald.

Song—"Listen to the Dixie Band".....George B. Cobb
William Leith.

Song—Selected.....S. Pitblow
Miss Barbara McDonald.

Song—"In the Valley of Tears".....A. J. Lamb
Gilda Manero.

Closing chorus—"Come Where the Lilies Bloom".....W. L. Thompson
Entire company.

Tanbush—William Leith, S. Pitblow.
Bones—Gilbert Phillips, John Duncan.
Interlocutor—William Harry.
Musical director—W. H. Goodfellow.
Accompanist—Miss M. A. Walker.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Winter underwear values at Vaughan's. Victor records for November are here. Call and hear them at Bailey's Music Rooms, 14 Elm street, Barre.

E. E. Sillaway of Morrisville, who has been visiting relatives in the city for the past few days, left this afternoon for his home.

A crowd of about 40 people of St. John the Baptist society gathered at the Knights of Columbus hall in the Scamplini block Tuesday evening in order to enjoy themselves at playing whist. The affair was pronounced such a success that the committee at once decided to have another such gathering at the earliest possible time. About the second week in November it is expected that the next party will be called. Miss Emma Charbonneau and Louis Fredette were the high scorers while Arthur Parody and George Gilbertson were lowest in percentage.

Cast for "The Man from Virginia."

The cast to be seen in "The Man from Virginia," to be presented at Barre opera house Friday and Saturday of next week under the auspices of the civic department of the Woman's club, is as follows: Randolph Page, from Virginia.....Dr. H. H. Reid

Col. Green, from Kentucky.....Dr. F. M. Lynde

Old Missouri, a forty-niner.....C. L. Brown

Jack Logan, a renegade.....C. L. Brown

Bill Potts, of Potts' Place.....J. M. Duncan

Mike Kelly, from the old sod.....John Duncan

Cyclone Jim, stage driver.....Perry Oliver

Snowball, the Colonel's "nigger".....George A. Shepard

Crimps, a holy terror.....George Faulkner

Patches, a school kid.....Miss Hazel Mackay

Molly Bayne, from Boston.....Miss Edith Watson

Billy, a young heathen.....Mrs. Florence Buttig

Bridget, cook lady.....Miss Mary McCarthy

Timmy, born before Denny.....Miss Dorothy Rounds

Denny, born before Mickey.....Miss Alice Bradford

Mickey, born after Denny.....Miss Dorothy Boyce

Joy, a girl of the hills.....Miss Frieda Hooker

Notice.

A regular meeting of the Central Labor union of Barre and vicinity will be held at carpenters' hall Friday evening, October 29, at 7:30. S. L. Card, Secretary.

Fresh Fish Varieties

After the Food Fair Comes Fish Fare Here 'Tis

FRESH MACKEREL, SWORD FISH, BLUE FISH, COD, TROUT, BULL POUTS, SMELTS, FLATS, SALMON, HADDOCK, HALIBUT, HERRINGS, HADDIES, LOBSTERS, CLAMS, OYSTERS, FRESH GRATED HORSE RADISH.

We know that those who tasted the Coffee served by us at the Food Fair will not be forgetting the delicious flavor. It was the Reception Brand, especially blended and packed for us. The price: 35c per lb.

The F. D. Ladd Company

The Smith & Cumings Co.